KENSINGTON WINE MARKET

www.kensingtonwinemarket.com

Welcome to our 10th Spring Wine Times! Quick question, would you like to receive us on-line instead of by "snail mail"? Log on to our web site www.kensingtonwinemarket.com and register to receive our Wine Line (cute eh!). You still get your 10 percent discount and we save paper! Our Gift of the Month Club is a huge hit. Such a thoughtful way to say thank you, happy birthday or Happy Mother's Day. You can register on-line or give us a call at 283-8000. It's that easy. Great News! We have extended our free delivery service to include all of Mount Royal and the neighborhoods as far south as 26th Avenue. Check out our delivery map on-line. News Flash! Jarno Trulli, rich and famous Formula One driver is coming to 'lil ole Calgary. Guess what else! He is also a terrific wine maker. His dinner at the Post Hotel is sold out, but he will be visiting KWM. Watch the web for details!

NEW THIS SPRING

Ata Rangi Pinot Noir, New Zealand Ata Rangi Pinot Noir has three times won the International Wine & Spirit Trophy (UK) for best Pinot Noir in 1995, 1996 and 2001. Our allocation for the 2001 is extremely small. Don't let your wine collection go "Sideways" by missing out! $58.99

Finca Sandoval Syrah, Spain ARRIVED! This amazing blend of Syrah and Mourvedre hails from the Castilla-La Mancha region of Spain. Full bodied and concentrated with warm earth tones this 2001 is impressive. Allocations are tiny. 91 Points Robert Parker. $53.99

Kalleske Clarry's White, Barossa, Australia Catapulted to fame by wine critic Robert Parker Kalleske is Aussie Land's new darling cult wine to own. Clarry's Barossa White is a charming blend of Semillon and Chenin Blanc. Fresh tropical flavors with lots of tangy grapefruit. $20.99

Loring Wine Company, Santa Barbara, California Loring is a small winery that produces only Pinot Noir. As they say on their web site: "Is there really anything else worth drinking, aside from Champagne?" Our allocation is only 5 cases! Limit 2 bottles per customer. (sorry) $TBA

Talisker 18 Year Oh! So Rare! This is a powerful 18 year old. Rich and sweet with familiar smoky maritime aromas. Full-bodied, it opens sweetly and finishes with just a whiff of smoke. $81.99

Altos Las Hormigas Bonarda, Argentina Looking for an absolutely fabulous, affordable red? Bonarda, a grape variety originally from Italy, produces a big wine with loads of fruit yet "polite" tannins! Under 15. (on the water)

??-?-? The De-Vine Truth ??-?-?-?

Which country produces the most ice wine?

"Canada's cool climatic conditions enable it to be the largest ice wine producer in the world. The grapes for ice wine must be gathered and pressed at a temperature not higher than -8° C. Although both Germany and Austria are large ice wine producers, their climates are not as consistently cold enough to guarantee ice wine production every year. Canada produces over 2 million 375ml bottles of ice wine annually. The average price of $45/bottle in Canada will go as high as $220 in Japan". Wines of Canada.

Staff Picks

Andrew – The Arran Malt – From Scotland's newest distillery(1995), this single malt is a perfect match for the fresh air of spring. Soft and light with hints of vanilla and honey. A steal at $44.99.

Laurie – Jos Christoffel Jr Auslese 1976 – Some things get better with age and this Riesling Auslese is proof. The flavors are rich with notes of honey, spring flowers and marzipan. $44.99

Kathleen – Murray McDavid Cooley 1992 – There are only 3 distilleries in all of Ireland. The "Cooley" is the only one still independently owned. This is the authentic taste of traditional Irish whiskey, without the blarney. $87.99

Michael – Giorgio Primo 2001 – This Tuscan treasure was Elton John's table wine at the recent "Oscars" party. Not only does he know about music, he knows his wine. $54.99

Tom – Boris Beer – From Alsace, light, fresh and crisp. Perfect for summer's heat, with seafood or Thai food. The ideal beer for your RV. $9.99

Tricia – Montes Cabernet Carmenere 2003 – Hints of chocolate, coffee and butterscotch without the sweetness!! You're sweet enough! $16.49

Darryl – Stonier Pinot Noir 2003 – Sweet summer berries, lush and rich . Perfect with cedar planked salmon. $23.99

Barry – St Hallett Faith Shiraz 2002 – Aromas of sweet fruit and peppery spice with raspberry and plum. Soft, medium bodied. Very nice alternative to the full bodied, over the top Aussie style. $23.49

Maggie – Luigi Bosca Malbec 2001 – This lush Malbec has rich fruit, soft tannins, and a slice of cocoa on the side. Can you say, "Yum?" $19.99

Spring Sipping

Time to Lighten Up! Shed those cold night "reds" and heavy weight "whites". Come on, put some zing in your spring.

Mionetto Prosecco, Italy A light weight, only 10% alcohol, refreshing bubbly. The crown cap makes it super easy to open (especially if you're in a hurry!) Crisp, clean, lots of fun. For extra flare, add a blood orange slice for garnish. $16.49

Cullen Semillon Sauvignon Blanc, Australia OK, it's a little more than what we'd usually spend for a "house" wine but, after just one taste we couldn't resist! Silky fruit flavors and ever so gently oaked. Here's the best part....no more cork! Just twist and shout. $33.99

Limoncello di Sorrento, Italy One of Italy's best kept secrets.....until now! Take 1/4 cup vodka, 2 tbsp Campari, 2 tbsp Sorrento Limoncello and shake over ice. Pour into a chilled martini glass and add 1/2 cup freshly squeezed orange juice. Garnish with a slice of lime. Makes a sublime evening cocktail. $36.49

Fox Wood Rosé, France We never tire of this refreshing Rosé from the South of France. Crisp and dry with fresh strawberry notes. Plan a picnic....Janice Beaton Cheese Triple Cream Cheese + Charley's Bakery Apple Tart = Irresistible! $14.99

Marzemino di Isera, Italy Marzemino is a grape variety grown in the Trentino region of Northern Italy. Very fruity and low in tannin, it reminds us of Beaujolais! This light-weight red is just perfect for Spring sipping. $21.99
